HEARING

Are Considering Advantages of Purchasing Local Unit of People's Company.

Richmond's Water Commissioners are seriously considering the possibility of the plan of purchasing the local unit of the People's Water Company. At last night's meeting of the commission it was decided that all members should attend the hearing on the application of the reorganization of the People's Water Company to be held in San Francisco before the Railroad Commission on April 15.

At the hearing the appraisement that the company places on its holdings will be threshed out. Whether the Water Commissioners will approve of any scheme to take over the local unit of the People's Water will depend almost entirely on whether the appraisement is deemed a proper and reasonable one.

Has Found Traces of Rabies days have arrived, according to Poundmaster Smith. Smith asserted yesterday that local residents who own dogs should be very careful with the animals. He advised that all dogs be kept out of the sun. Another thing that the poundmaster wishes to impress particularly on the public is the necessity of providing all dogs with plenty of drinking water.

According to Smith it is a dangerous sign when a dog keeps his mouth open.

Habits are not yet stamped out in Richmond. All dogs should be muzzled, says Smith. Every month he kills one or two dogs found to be afflicted with the disease.

Little Probability of M. M. & E.
Man Being Tried on Other Charges.

There is little probability that J. P. Emerson, Merchant, Manufacturer and Employers' Association man, will have to stand further trials on charges growing out of the plot to involve labor leaders in a dynamite conspiracy.

A charge of unlawfully having a nuisance in his possession is pending against him in Stockton. This, it is thought, will be dropped.

A charge of burglary is pending against him in this county.

While District Attorney T. D. Johnston has made no definite statement, he has admitted that further prosecution would be needless expense to the county and it is thought that he will move for a dismissal. When Emerson comes up before Judge Zook at Martinez to have the date of his third trial set.

Thursday the jury trying him for the second time on the charge of having dynamite unlawfully in his possession was discharged after deliberating for four hours without changing the first ballot, which was nine for acquittal and three for conviction.

BURGLAR GETS COAT AND SPECS

Last Thursday night a burglar entered the apartment of Mrs. H. C. Royton at 225 First street and stole a black overcoat, a pair of gold rimmed eyeglasses, a silk handkerchief valued at $4, and a pair of black Pederas hat. The nocturnal intruder was frightened away by Mrs. Royton's dog, which awakened her by his barking. The police are working on the case.

PILES FOR CITY WHARF TO BE BUILT IN S. F.

Healy-Tibbitts to Give Big Job Across the Bay, Says Mayor.

Because the Healy-Tibbitts Company, which has the contract for the construction of municipal wharf No. 1, has been unable to find a place near the wharf in which to carry on the work of constructing the solid concrete piles that will go into the pier, all of this work will be done in San Francisco. This was the assertion made by Mayor E. J. Garrard last night.

The piles will be brought across the bay on barges. Work on them will start in a few days, as they have to be set at least thirty days before they can be sunk. Before they are installed they must be inspected and approved by the city engineers.

The building of the concrete piles in San Francisco will take much work that could be done here, and which would put many thousands of dollars into the pockets of local laborers and local sub-contractors, out of the city. It is stated that the only reason that the company decided to do the work across the bay was because it could not find a place here in which to do it.

J. W. HUTCHINS TO GET MILITARY BURIAL

Following the funeral services this morning over the remains of the late John W. Hutchins, Civil War veteran, who died following a long illness at his home at 3225 Bissell avenue on Wednesday, the remains will be taken to the Presidio in San Francisco, where they will be interred with full military honors in the National cemetery. A squad of regulars will be detailed by General Frederick Funston, in command of the military post, to fire a volley over the grave.

The deceased was a member of the Odd Fellows lodge in good standing for 55 years. He kept up his lodge affiliations until he died. He was one of the oldest active members of that order in the United States.

The services, which will be held at 10 o'clock in the Smallwood parlors on Macdonald avenue, will be under the auspices of the local Odd Fellows. A delegation from the Women's Relief Corps of Richmond will be in attendance.

GRAND JURY TO MEET THURSDAY

After a vacation of a couple of weeks, Foreman E. B. Anderson and his 1915 Grand Jury will gather next Thursday in the court house at Martinez to deliver further into the affairs of the county. There were many rumors of indictments previous to the adjournment and they are being revived as the time draws near for the second session to begin.

The jury will meet in the supervisors' room and will probably be in session several days. Some action regarding the road overseers of the county and the bills they presented is expected. As some of the Exposition bills were held up, it is presumed that the Grand Jury will take some action on these.

More old fairy tales will be told to the children at the Saturday afternoon story hour this week. All the stories to be told will contain a large element of delightful humor and they are promising, which little folks always enjoy most.

"The Cock, the Mouse and the Little Red Hen" from the attractive new book for youngest readers, which will be ready to take home after the story hour; "The Brave Little Tailor" from Grimm's tales; and "The Emperor's New Clothes" from Andersen's Fairy Tales.

Referendum Resolution Got

Schmidt and Caplan.

President P. H. McCarthy, Secretary Olaf A. Treitmo and all other officers of the State Building Trades Council were re-elected yesterday without opposition at the convention of the state body in San Francisco.

The committee on resolutions turned down the referendum resolution. The measure did not even get on the floor. An attempt by the delegate from the San Jose council to bring the matter before the convention yesterday morning was quickly balked.

The next convention will be held in Sacramento.

Resolutions pledging its moral and financial support to M. A. Schmidt and David Caplan, union men, now awaiting trial in Los Angeles on a charge of murder growing out of the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times building. The convention adjourned at noon.

In the afternoon the delegates went on an excursion around the bay. Delegates Pennington and Wisdom of Richmond left the party at Wincennes. Last night the annual ball was held in the Building Trades Temple, President McCarthy leading the grand march.

The convention was exceptionally general and "peace and harmony" reigned throughout.

GOODRICH TO
APRIL FIRST

Alleged Bad Check Fasser Has Been in Jail Three Months.

After an almost continuous session of criminal trials since he took the office of district attorney, Thos. D. Johnston will now be able to take a short rest, due to the fact that Eli Goodrich cannot be convicted because of the departure of the main witnesses for Arizona.

There will be no more criminal cases tried this month. Judge Lettmer has fixed Thursday, April 1, as the time for the commencement of the trial of H. M. Goodrich, charged with passing a fictitious check upon J. T. Work of Richmond.

Goodrich has been in jail for about three months. He has asked for a jury trial. In case he should get free the San Francisco authorities will take him there for trial, as he has left a long string of worthless checks in that city also.

BARACAS OF CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH ELECT

The Baracas of the Calvary Baptist church met Thursday evening in a semi-annual business meeting, at the home of Arthur Murphy. The newly elected officers for the next six months are: Emmett Hitchcock, president; Ralph Lewis, vice president; Arthur Murphy, secretary and chairman of social committee; Clifford Skinner, treasurer; Ralph Beck, chairman of member and music committee; Robert Kelley, chairman of athletic committee. After the business meeting ice cream and cake were served.

Edward Donovan, Boilermaker to Sue Santa Fe for Damages

Charging that he had been beaten almost unconscious by a brakeman while on a Santa Fe train Thursday night on the way to Martinez, Edward Donovan, boilermaker, of Pinole, yesterday retained Wilbur S. Pierce, prominent attorney of this city, and will sue the railroad for damages.

Donovan was picked up in Martinez Thursday night by Constable C. H. Palmer. Donovan was covered with blood and was walking like a drunk man. He was locked up.

Yesterday morning, still a little dazed, he told his story to Attorney Pierce.

Donovan says he boarded the train at Pinole after it had started. A brakeman asked him if he had a ticket and Donovan gave it to him. When he was seated in the smoking car, the conductor demanded his ticket. Donovan told him that he had given it to the brakeman. The conductor refused to believe the statement. The brakeman came up while they were arguing and gave the conductor the ticket. The conductor asked how the brakeman had gotten possession of the ticket. Donovan explained.

He declares that then, for no reason whatever, the brakeman punched him on the jaw. Donovan scrambled to his feet and was trying to defend himself, he says, when he was knocked unconscious.

When he came to the conductor was bathing his face. At Muir, declares Donovan, he was put off the train.

He came from Pinole, he says, to get work on the Shell job.

Explodes in Stove

Some place in Richmond lives a hen that is soon to become the object of the search of the United States department of the nation.

Some hens can mother four-legged chickens, others lay eggs twice the normal size and still others lay no eggs at all.

But few hens can lay hand grenades. That's what the Richmond fowl does.

Mrs. E. D. Noble, 1238 Sixth street, yesterday morning accidentally put an egg in the stove. There was a fire in the stove.

Presently there was a terrific explosion. The lid of the stove flew into the air. A piece of shell struck Mrs. Noble in the eye. The wound was a painful one, but will not affect the sight.

Dr. Hatt Weston attended her.

What the hen ate to help her lay bombs, isn't known. It is said that the owner of the hen lives in Hercules, but that has not been confirmed.

VALUABLE ADDITIONS
MADE TO LIBRARY

The library has recently subscribed for two periodicals, dealing with the latest developments in current history, which are proving of infinite value to the reference department. Both magazines index the standard newspapers and in so doing not only refer to the article and date of occurrence, but give a digest of material on the more important happenings. For instance if you want the briefest possible summary (and reference to a fuller account) of the legislative measures before the present California Legislature, ask at the library for Street's Pandect of the News, and turn to the California Supplement of that periodical under the heading Legislature, where the more important bills are listed. For information on the decisions of the Railroad Commission, turn to that heading in the supplement. For international and national news, the periodical called "Information, A Digest of Current Events" will be of more service.

Have the reference department of the library answer your questions? If you can't come personally, Phone 401.

Tingstrum's Statement
He Had Planned to Wed

Sixteen-year-old Santella Gadbury feared that she would be separated from Jesse Tingstrum, tango teacher, who is now in the city jail charged with contributing to her delinquency, and she begged Tingstrum with tears in her eyes to take her away, according to statements made by Tingstrum. He says the girl heard that she was to be sent to Santa Cruz, solely to get her away from him, and then she begged him to take her, stating she was willing to go anywhere in the world with him.

The former dancing teacher says he loves the girl, and that his love is returned. They had been engaged for five months, he claims, and he further asserts they intended to be married at the earliest possible moment. He says his intentions were to take the Gadbury girl away from the city when fear of detection was over. "I was planned to be away making their way safely out of the country."

The troubles of the tango teacher do not seem to weigh heavily on his mind. His appetite is good, and his only complaint is that he is without funds and has been unable to get a shave or his usual allotment of tobacco since his confinement in the city prison.

He will be taken to the county jail at Martinez today to await his preliminary hearing, which will be held in Richmond, the date of which has not been set.

VENARDI CASE SET FOR TODAY

This morning at 10 o'clock the preliminary hearing of Joe Venardi, charged with obtaining goods on false pretenses, sworn to by A. Nichol, formerly one of the proprietors of the Richmond Jewelry company in this city, will have his preliminary hearing before Police Judge Lindsay. Venardi, it is understood, will plead not guilty to the charge against him.

Nichol claims that Venardi bought some jewelry from him, misrepresenting his financial condition at the time he purchased it. Venardi asserts his intentions were good, but that a series of misfortunes prevented him from paying up the balance of the money he owes the jeweler.

BOYER CAMPAIGNS FOR MEMBERS

A special campaign is being launched by Rev. Thomas A. Boyer and a special corps of workers of the First Christian church for increasing the membership of that organization. Rev. Boyer is planning to look up such unidentified members who have formerly been connected with the church for which he ministers, and make an effort to enroll them as active participants in the work of the local congregation.

In presenting his plan of campaign to the other members of the city, several of them expressed themselves as impressed with its practicability, and of their intention to undertake something of the same nature in connection with their congregations.

HOW DID YOU SPEND IT, OWENS?

Senator Double Cross Owens, breaker of written promises and probably the most incompetent of all the fine birds in the Senate of our glorious state, wants the state to reimburse him for the expenses he incurred during the attempt to recall him.

He is entitled, under the constitution, to the legal expenses.

Owens says his legal expenses amounted to $6730 and some odd cents.

What we would like to know is how he spent that $6730.

In order to ascertain what his legal expenses were, it is essential, of course, to have an itemized bill. An attempt is being made now to force the worthy senator to explain how and where he spent that $6730. An itemized account of how he spent it would be highly interesting.

Probably he did spend almost $7000. But how much of that is legal expenses?

If the claim is an honest one, Senator, tell us for what you spent the money.

Does booze, etc., etc., and the cost of all the dark and devious methods used to defeat the recall constitute legal expenses?

AN UNNECESSARY APOLOGY.

"Beware how you vote on this bill. Your vote is being watched."

In the heat of the debate on the cement container bill, Assemblyman Ryan of San Francisco shouted the above warning.

Four assemblymen immediately rose to their feet to say that they considered the warning a "threat of labor" and they resented it; it hurt their feelings.

Ryan apologized. That warning needed no apology.

Of course, it was a threat of labor. It was labor swinging the big stick. It was labor telling the legislators who had listened to the sweet songs of the cement companies' lobbyists, to think well before they defied the organized workers of the state.

Ryan said he meant no threat. We think he did. Probably he should have said it a little more politely. But he told the truth. He said the vote was being watched.

The vote was being watched, as the vote is watched on all labor measures. Labor wants to know where the legislators stand on questions vital to it. And when it finds out it will know when the support next time.

Yesterday Paul Scharronberg, secretary of the State Federation of Labor, announced that he had compiled the "double cross" list and had sent it to all the labor councils of the state. The double-cross list consists of legislators who pledged themselves to vote for the bill and who violated that pledge. Assemblyman Sharkey of Contra Costa county, though he voted against the bill, is not included in the list of double-crossers.

In his campaign Sharkey quite frankly refused to pledge himself to support labor measures. But the majority of the Henry Dub workingmen went right ahead and voted for him.

Ryan made no slip when he warned the legislators to think a minute before they voted. He told no untruth when he said they were being watched.

We need more watching of votes, more publicity on how our legislators are voting on labor measures.

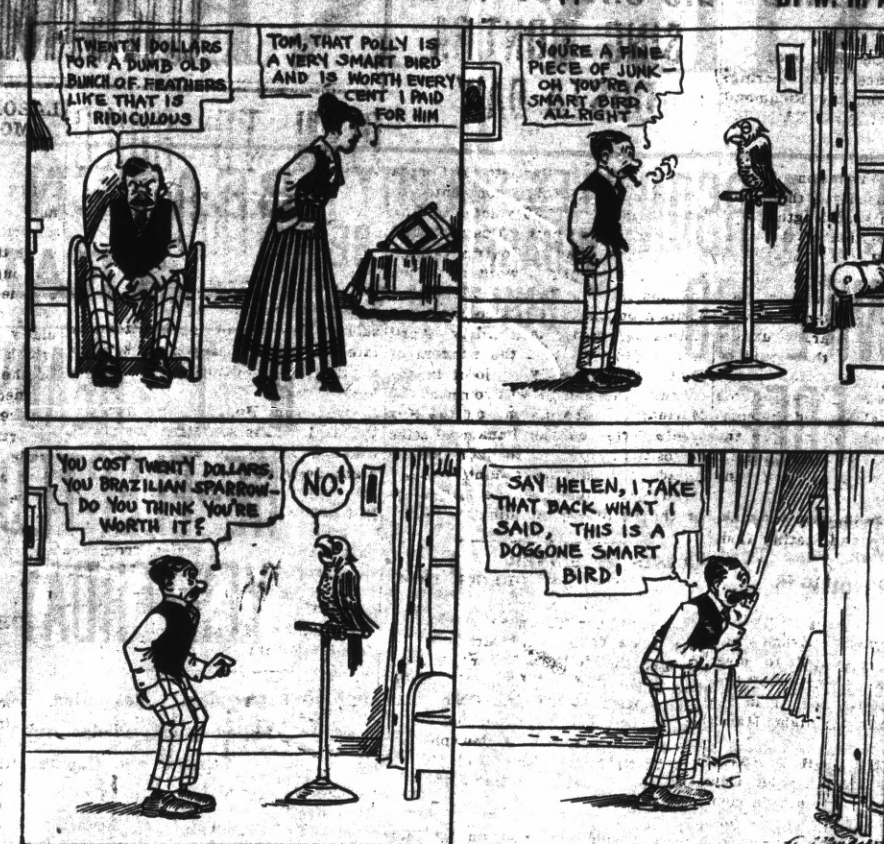

Indeed, we need more Ryans to get up on their hind legs and talk brass tacks to the members of the double-cross fraternity.

GRAMMER LADS AFTER GOAT OF HIGH

This morning at 10 o'clock the Grammar school baseball team of Richmond will clash with the Richmond High school Lightweights on the First street grounds. There is a feud between the grammar and high boys that can only be settled through the medium of a baseball game, and the members of both aggregations will work hard this morning to bring home the long end of the score.

The battery for the Grammar school laddies will be McCormick and Gadbury, while Rasmussen, Johnson and Prouse will be on the points for the High aggregation. Captain McCann of the regular High nine will be on hand at the game to scout likely material from the Lightweights for the big team of the local secondary institution.

also be in attendance at the hearing. A committee from the Richmond Club, consisting of Mrs. Katherine Smith, Mrs. Katherine Zimmerman, Mrs. C. S. Gibson and Mrs. Conwell, attended at the invitation of the commission and discussed the water problem in this city at length.

It was the contention of the committee that the Water Commission should obtain the geological reports for this county in the district this side of Mt. Diablo to determine whether there are any large underground bodies of water that could be tapped by wells, and which would produce enough water to supply this city. The women also urged the commissioners to carefully consider the plan suggested to take over the holdings of the People's Water Company in this city.

The women were thanked for making an appearance and stating their views.

A committee, consisting of Commissioners Timmons Evans and Blanchard, was appointed to meet with the Contra Costa Building Trades Council at its meeting in the Labor Temple Thursday night, March 25.

PLAN PIPES THROUGH TUNNEL

Commissioners McSethaler Curran and Evans were appointed a committee to delve into the proposed plan of the city running a pipe line through the municipal tunnel to the municipal wharf upon the completion of the wharf. Some system of getting water piped to the wharf must be devised, in the opinion of the commissioners.

Mayor Garrard happened to be present, and was called on by Chairman Willis to state his ideas in regard to the water problem. Garrard said he still thinks the Sacramento river proposition is the best one that has been presented. Some of the commissioners seemed to hardly concur in this opinion.

CONVICT BILL GETS HEARING

The Owens-Meek convict labor bill, providing for the use of convicts on the building of roads, came before the assembly yesterday on a special order. Meek opened the argument, declaring that the bill would not deprive free labor of employment, as there are no available funds to pay labor.

Assemblyman W. W. Harris, Socialist, who is the floor leader for the labor bills introduced by the State Federation of Labor, was the first to oppose the bill, taking as his chief ground that the measure would prove to be harmful to the prison reform movement in this state. He declared the question is not one of penology, but of dollars and cents.

His opposition also was directed against the principle that convict labor does not interfere with free labor, and he urged, on behalf of free labor, that the assembly go on record against the bill.

Harris urged that the men in the penitentiaries should not be worked on the roads to save money; but should be trained in the institutions so as to equip them to resume their places in society as useful citizens. Trades should be taught and the convicts' lives so shaped that they may go out of the prisons with some opportunity open to earn a livelihood.

Work on the roads, said Harris, will not help the prisoners, but work to their detriment.

Assemblyman Prendergast, San Francisco, spoke for the bill, declaring the measure is not a labor problem, but an economic and humanitarian bill.

Speeches were made in favor of the bill by Harold McPherson and Fred E. Judson. McPherson said the work in the open, and the increased freedom, would prove an inspiration to the men.

Judson urged that the convicts should be given an opportunity to work out their salvation.

Taking the stand that convict labor harms free labor, Assemblyman W. P. Kennedy urged the defeat of the bill. He also declared that the convicts roaming the hills would be a menace to the people living near the highways.

Assemblyman J. E. Manning, Marina, in whose county San Quentin Prison is situated, spoke in favor of the bill. He denied that the convicts would be a menace if allowed to work in the open.

Manning said the work would be of benefit to the men.

H. W. Brown spoke for the bill because, he believes, great benefit will be secured for the men.

ORGANIZED LABOR

LABOR OPPOSES BRITISH MOBILIZATION OF WOMEN

LONDON, March 19.—The novel and rather revolutionary plan of the government to mobilize women to replace the men needed for war service, although only tentatively outlined by the board of trade, has aroused wide discussion in England, especially in organized labor circles, which are disturbed at the prospect of the influx of thousands of untrained non-union women into the spheres of various trades.

Mrs. Mary McArthur, secretary of the women's trade union league, an organization with a membership of 240,000, says there are at least 40,000 union women at present without employment, and she feels it is incumbent upon the government to give them first call.

RICHMOND'S MONTHLY SUCCESS STARTER HERE

Boosting Richmond's opportunities for investments or factory building and distribution of all goods "Made in Richmond," the March "Success Starter Magazine" is a credit to this community.

Richmond's business buildings, apartments and residences are shown interestingly in groups and our railroad transportation facilities are presented with photographs printed in complete detail, as also are the Pullman Car Company's works and the plants of the Western Pipe and Steel and the California Chair Co.

Types of California bungalows of uniquely original design and much good reading about bungalow building, give helpful suggestions to home builders. There is a leading article upon "Good Credit Reputation," and property investments.

There is a column of comment upon realty values and investments, by Herbert F. Brown, the Richmond factory builder.

"TILLIE'S PUNCTURED ROMANCE" AT THE POINT THEATRE

A vast army of joys complete will rout all the local glooms at the POINT THEATRE. "Tillie's Punctured Romance," starring Marie Dressler, America's greatest stage comedienne, together with Mabel Normand and Charlie Chaplin, two of the leading comedy stars of the film-world, will be shown for One Day Only and for the last time, and the epidemic of laughter is sure to spread.

"Tillie's Punctured Romance" is the largest comedy picture ever made, having six reels and more than 6000 feet of film. It is similar to Marie Dressler's famous stage success, "Tillie's Nightmare," but is even more replete with laughs. It was written and produced by Mack Sennet, the famous director of Keystone films. Every foot is comic masterpiece, and the picture is undoubtedly one of the hits of the season.

Charlie Chaplin and Mabel Normand have long been noted as the comic touch dispensers in the "movies," but when Marie Dressler, a comedienne of the two dollar stage variety, is added, then the fun knows no bounds. If you want to laugh as you haven't laughed since you were a kid, go to the Point Theater this afternoon or tonight.

CLOTHIERS ARE FAST BUNCH

Some of the fastest bushers cavorting in San Francisco are going to pay Richmond a visit Sunday. These bushers have been banded together on the team of the McDonald & Collette Clothiers, which will clash with the Elks on the First street grounds tomorrow afternoon.

LOWENBERG WILL TACKLE THE SEAL YANNIGANS

SAN RAFAEL, March 19.—The Wieland will play the Seal stay-at-home game here next Sunday. Manager Lowenberg will send his strongest team against Wolverton's big leaguers, who will probably have Spider Baum in the box. The Wieland will open with Cy Ross in the box, with Babe Hollis or Cy Parkins

Smith and Mansfield, extras.

The Elks will line up as they have for the past two Sundays, with the exception of Hays Remmer. Remmer has been dropped from the payroll by Luce, who thinks he is not quite up to standard of a utility man fit for big duty. "Bric" Devereaux is still being held in reserve for utility so local fans need have no fears that the Elks will be up against it if an inside or outfielder is unexpectedly put out of the game.

Remmer was advised of his release yesterday. He already has his wife out to head on some other club.

To relieve him if anything goes wrong, Remmer will catch. The Wieland expect to give the Seal a warm time.

Baseball is reviving up in Richmond now to beat the band. More teams are springing up than you can shake a club at. Every day now some new club gets in the field. All the strongest team against Wolverton's big leaguers, who will probably have Spider Baum in the box. The Wieland will open with Cy Ross in the box, with Babe Hollis or Cy Parkins

Tedrazzini Gets Season Ticket

Duke Tedrazzini, one of the rabidest of Richmond's rabid fans, was the first man to purchase a season's pass from Manager Bill Luce. Yesterday Tedrazzini walked into baseball headquarters, plunked down his five kopecks, asked for a season's pass and said he did not intend to miss one game out of thirty.

Tedrazzini, who works for the Enterprise Brewing Company, says there is only one thing that beats beer in his estimation, and that is baseball. He found out that the season tickets were on sale by reading the sporting page of the Daily News.

Luce has several hundred of the season tickets in his possession, which anyone can have by paying the price.

SAN RAFAEL IN FOR SERIES WITH THE ELKS

Lowie Lowenberg, well known in this city, and one of the most astute bush managers in these wilds, has closed a deal whereby his Wieland bunch will transfer their allegiance from San Francisco to San Rafael. Lowenberg's gang will hereafter travel under the name of Lowenberg's San Rafael Wieland. Some name, huh. And it is some club that old Louie has banded together, as local fans who saw the opening game on the First street grounds several weeks ago can testify.

With Lowenberg operating in an Rafael, and McNamara and Healy at their old stands in Martinez and Petaluma, local ball nuts have some choice diamond morsels to look forward to.

Lowenberg is certain to get a big following among the San Rafael fans, and he will probably work up an interest in his team and its activities akin to the interest the fans in Richmond and Petaluma take in the game.

Bill Luce plans to play several games with San Rafael this season. One of these days Luce and Lowenberg will get together and figure out a few dates.

JEFF WOODS TO RICHMOND HIGH DO UMPIRING HEREAFTER AND DUMMIES TO CLASH

By a deal closed by Manager Bill Luce yesterday with Jeff Woods of Vallejo, Woods has been secured to umpire all the games in which the Elks participate during the rest of the season. Woods is expected to be on deck for his first appearance Sunday.

The Vallejo indicator man is acknowledged to be the classiest arbitrator running loose in the bushes, and Luce feels tickled to death that he was able to get his Jonathan Benignus on an Elk contract.

Hayes has been released by Luce, after two trials.

Vallejo papers that have stated that Woods is coming here to play second base for the Elks are wrong. He is to umpire, and that is all. Luce is more than satisfied with the work of Carl Zamlock at second, and has no thought of swapping horses while crossing a stream.

Woods' strongest forte is umpiring and that is what he will do for the Elks the rest of the season. He handled the series between Richmond and Martinez and Richmond and Petaluma last year, and all home and out of town fans were satisfied with his work.

SPORTING GOULASH

There are some who contend that ball players won't work. Some won't, but the majority will. "Cutey" Cunningham has grabbed a job that gives him the acid test in the work line. So far Bill has managed to come out with flying colors.

Grab this one, Richmond. * will win tomorrow. You'd * better be there to see the * boys turn the trick.

Something novel in the baseball line is to be presented on the First street grounds Sunday, when Captain McCann of the High school team will send his huskies in against the deaf and dumb players from Berkeley. Talk the game up and get a good crowd out to see the High lads perform. The dummies are saying nothing about the game, so all the talking will have to come from the Richmond end of the line.

Midget Childs played a ragged game for St. Mary's College in the game against the Seal Thursday afternoon. Childs was way off color on his pitching. Three times he threw low to "Lovely Lou" Gustaf, compelling the S. F. to chalk up errors against his name. The Seal beat the college boys by the score of 12 to 5.

The Crowds Go Where Values Are Best

THEY FIND THEM AT

EISENBERGS' NATIONAL SHOE COMPANY

619 MACDONALD AVE.

What a foolish thing it would be for you to pay $3.50 or $4.00 for what you can get at $2.50. Yet many people do this, just for the reason that they don't keep posted on values at different stores.

THIS HOUSE SPECIALIZES ON MEN'S AND WOMEN'S SHOES AT $2.50, and they are just the same values that you get elsewhere at $3.50 and $4.00. A mighty buying combination enables us to give you this saving. All we ask is an opportunity to demonstrate our claim.
